Course Description:

Paul's epistle to the Galatians is his most powerful and intensely passionate outcry against the goings on in the Galatian churches of his day. His frustration is perfectly reflected in his question: "You foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you?" as he struggles to understand their quick betrayal of the crucified Christ and His true gospel!

Paul's anguish, rising up from the very core of his being, results in a made-to-order check list for the churches of today, both in terms of what must be avoided at any cost as well as the good and exemplary things for which to strive.

Among the topics we will cover are:

- The true vs the perverted gospel
- The law, the flesh and the Spirit
- Our freedom in Christ
- The fruit of the Spirit ... and more!

We, the modern church of the last days, are in dire need of the admonitions as well as the encouragements of Galatians as we eagerly await the imminent return of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.
