

Dealing with False Teachers – Pt 2

7	1 Timothy 3:15 ... but in case I am delayed, I write so that you will know how one ought to conduct himself in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and support of the truth.
	Psalms 119:163 I hate and despise falsehood, but I love Your law.
8	1 Timothy 1:3-7 <ol style="list-style-type: none">3. As I urged you upon my departure for Macedonia, remain on at Ephesus so that you may instruct certain men not to teach strange doctrines,4. nor to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which give rise to mere speculation rather than furthering the administration of God which is by faith.5. But the goal of our instruction is love from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith.6. For some men, straying from these things, have turned aside to fruitless discussion,7. wanting to be teachers of the Law, even though they do not understand either what they are saying or the matters about which they make confident assertions.

The Lord's bond-servant must not be quarrelsome, but be kind to all, able to teach, patient when wronged,25. with gentleness correcting those who are in opposition, if perhaps God may grant them repentance leading to the knowledge of the truth,26. and they may come to their senses and escape from the snare of the devil, having been held captive by him to do his will.
11 ↓	Acts 18:24-28 <ol style="list-style-type: none">24. Now a Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by birth, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus; and he was mighty in the Scriptures.25. This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he was speaking and teaching accurately the things concerning Jesus, being acquainted only with the baptism of John;26. and he began to speak out boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately.27. And when he wanted to go across to Achaia, the brethren encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him; and when he had arrived, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace,28. for he powerfully refuted the Jews in public, demonstrating by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:4-9

4. For when one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not mere men?
5. What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, even as the Lord gave opportunity to each one.
6. I planted, Apollos watered, but God was causing the growth.
7. So then neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but God who causes the growth.
8. Now he who plants and he who waters are one; but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor.
9. For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building.

Titus 3:12-14

12. When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, make every effort to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.
13. Diligently help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way so that nothing is lacking for them.
14. Our people must also learn to engage in good deeds to meet pressing needs, so that they will not be unfruitful.
